PropFuel

EXAMPLE BUILD · LAPSED-MEMBER WIN-BACK

A win-back for the American Bar Association.

Four short emails. Each asks one question, and every answer sets off the right next step: a rejoin link, an answer to their objection, or a graceful goodbye.

Example only. The American Bar Association is not a PropFuel client and has not reviewed or endorsed this campaign. We built it from the ABA's public website to show what a PropFuel campaign build looks like.

4	4	13	1
emails over seven weeks	one-click questions	answer paths, each with its own next step	tap to answer, no login or form

THE CAMPAIGN AT A GLANCE

Four questions. Every answer goes somewhere.

Members enter the day they're marked lapsed. Each email goes out only if they haven't answered or rejoined yet, so a lawyer who comes back on day two never gets email three.

1 — SENDS 1 DAY AFTER A MEMBER LAPSES

Are you aware that your ABA membership has lapsed?

- No
- Yes

2 — SENDS 3 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 1

Are you planning to reinstate your ABA membership?

- Yes, I plan to rejoin!
- Maybe, I haven't decided yet.
- No, I won't be rejoining this year.

3 — SENDS 2 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 2

Would you like to rejoin the ABA now?

- Yes, let's do it!
- No, I won't be rejoining this year.

4 — SENDS 2 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 3

What is holding you back from rejoining the ABA?

- I'd like to rejoin now!
- Cost
- Time
- I'm retiring
- I've left the field
- Something else

Rejoin path · Answers the objection · Follow-up branch · Graceful exit

CHECK-IN 1 OF 4 · SENDS 1 DAY AFTER A MEMBER LAPSES

Are you aware that your ABA membership has lapsed?

From: ABA Membership · Sample member: John

Hi John,

We noticed your ABA membership has lapsed, and we wanted to check whether you knew. Sometimes life gets busy and renewals slip by.

We'd love to help you reconnect with the community and the resources you have as a member.

Are you aware that your ABA membership has lapsed?

No Yes

One click records the answer. No login, no form.

The ABA Membership Team

WHEN THEY ANSWER

No — REJOIN PATH

Shows a welcome-back page and sends the rejoin email.

Yes — FOLLOW-UP BRANCH

Asks one more question on the answer page: anything you'd like to share about your experience with ABA membership?

No answer? They roll to the next check-in automatically. Anyone who rejoins drops out the moment the membership system shows it.

WHY THIS QUESTION

Most lapsed members never decided to leave. When a medical society opened its win-back with this same question, 72% of first answers said they didn't know they'd lapsed. A yes or no surfaces those lawyers in one click, and the “No” group gets a rejoin link the same moment.

CHECK-IN 2 OF 4 · SENDS 3 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 1

Are you planning to reinstate your ABA membership?

From: ABA Membership · Sample member: John

Hi John,

It's been a few weeks since we checked in. Cases pile up and priorities shift, but the CLE programs, the network and the community of lawyers working to strengthen the profession are all still here whenever you're ready.

We're curious where your head is at.

Are you planning to reinstate your ABA membership?

Yes, I plan to rejoin! | Maybe, I haven't decided yet. | No, I won't be rejoining this year.

One click records the answer. No login, no form.

The ABA Membership Team

WHEN THEY ANSWER

Yes, I plan to rejoin! — REJOIN PATH
Shows a thank-you page and sends their rejoin link.

Maybe, I haven't decided yet. — FOLLOW-UP BRANCH
Moves them to the "why not" follow-up.

No, I won't be rejoining this year. — GRACEFUL EXIT
Stops this campaign for them and asks why, once.

No answer? They roll to the next check-in automatically. Anyone who rejoins drops out the moment the membership system shows it.

WHY THIS QUESTION

A "Renew now" button only hears from people who are already ready. Three choices hear from everyone, and "Maybe" is the most useful answer of all: a list of lawyers who are still persuadable, sorted before anyone spends a minute on outreach.

CHECK-IN 3 OF 4 · SENDS 2 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 2

Would you like to rejoin the ABA now?

From: ABA Membership · Sample member: John

Hi John,

We've checked in a couple of times now, and we'd genuinely love to have you back. Your voice and expertise matter to this profession. If you're ready, it takes just a few minutes.

Would you like to rejoin the ABA now?

Yes, let's do it! No, I won't be rejoining this year.

One click records the answer. No login, no form.

The ABA Membership Team

WHEN THEY ANSWER

Yes, let's do it! REJOIN PATH

Shows a welcome-back page and sends the reinstatement link.

No, I won't be rejoining this year. GRACEFUL EXIT

Stops this campaign for them and asks why, once.

No answer? They roll to the next check-in automatically. Anyone who rejoins drops out the moment the membership system shows it.

WHY THIS QUESTION

By week five, everyone still in the campaign has had two chances to answer. This is the direct ask, kept to three sentences, and it only reaches people who haven't answered or rejoined.

CHECK-IN 4 OF 4 · SENDS 2 WEEKS AFTER CHECK-IN 3

What is holding you back from rejoining the ABA?

From: ABA Membership · Sample member: John

Hi John,

We've reached out a few times, and we appreciate you thinking it over. Before we step back, we'd like to understand what's in the way. Is it cost, time, a life change, or something else?

Your answer helps us serve you better.

What is holding you back from rejoining the ABA?

I'd like to rejoin now! | Cost | Time | I'm retiring | I've left the field | Something else

One click records the answer. No login, no form.

The ABA Membership Team

WHEN THEY ANSWER

I'd like to rejoin now! — REJOIN PATH
Sends the reinstatement link right away.

Cost — ANSWERS THE OBJECTION
Shows what membership pays back, plus dues help.

Time — ANSWERS THE OBJECTION
Shows how on-demand CLE fits a busy practice.

I'm retiring — GRACEFUL EXIT
Thanks them for a career in the law. No more asks.

I've left the field — GRACEFUL EXIT
Wishes them well. No more asks.

Something else — FOLLOW-UP BRANCH
Asks them to tell us more, in their own words.

No answer? They roll to the next check-in automatically. Anyone who rejoins drops out the moment the membership system shows it.

WHY THIS QUESTION

This is the exit interview lapsed members never get. Six choices, one click, and each reason gets its own reply. Every reason lands on the member's record, ready for next year's renewal plan.

WHAT THE ASSOCIATION LEARNS

A reminder shows who clicked. This shows why.

AWARENESS

Who didn't know they'd lapsed

Check-in 1 separates members who missed a renewal from the ones who chose to leave. The first group usually just needs a link.

INTENT

Who's in, who's unsure, who's out

Check-ins 2 and 3 give a live list of “plan to rejoin” and “haven't decided” before another dollar goes to outreach.

REASONS

Cost, time, retiring, left the field

Check-in 4 turns churn into categories. Cost and time get a direct answer; retirees and career changers get a thank-you, not more asks.

THEIR WORDS

Open comments, in their own voice

Follow-ups collect what lapsed members want to say, written to their record.

Want one built for your association?

We'll build a campaign like this with you, live on a call, using Membership AI. Free for associations new to PropFuel.

Build my campaign →