• THE PROBLEM WE'RE SOLVING

Too much to do and not enough to get it done.

BUT

not enough time, budget, or people to do it all.

- ☐ Too much data spread across too many systems
- ☐ Information exists, but the meaning isn't clear
- ☐ Too many competing priorities
- ☐ No obvious next step after reviewing the data
- ☐ Outreach falls flat — nothing feels relevant to each member
- ☐ Members to respond to
- ☐ Events and programs to organize
- ☐ Emails to read
- ☐ Campaigns to build
- ☐ The kids need to be picked up from soccer
- ☐ Doctor's appointment on Wednesday

SESSION 4 — TODAY

The credential

What we're covering today

- 01 Why certification is a conversation, not a deadline

- 02 How to walk members through the whole journey

- 03 What it looks like in practice

- 04 Three things to do this week

Certification is one of the clearest signs a member is invested in staying.

So why do we only talk to them at the deadline?

A deadline reminder is not a relationship

Your association

"Renew your credential"

"CE hours due"

"Deadline approaching"

"Final notice"

You only show up when something's expiring. So that's all the credential feels like — a bill.

Turn the countdown into a conversation.

Same journey, but you're in it with them the whole way.

THE DEADLINE

Reminders, one way

"Renew your credential" ————— >

"CE hours due" ————— >

"Final notice" ————— >

THE CONVERSATION

Check in, hear back, help

"How's your prep going?" ————— >

< ————— "Cost is the holdup"

"Here's a payment plan" ————— >

Every stage is a chance to ask, not just remind.

Interested

Who wants it?

Pursuing

How's it going? What's blocking you?

Certified

Congrats — here's what's next.

Recertifying

CE, renewal — need help?

It starts by asking who's even interested.

THE QUESTION MEMBERS SEE

HOW MEMBERS ANSWERED

One question turns a guess into a list you can actually nurture.

Ask what they're working toward — then act on the answer automatically.

Hi there,

I'm reaching out to you about the Spring 2024 certification exam cycle.

Let me know what your plans are, and I'll point you in the right direction to get started.

I'll also send you periodic check-ins once you register along with tips and resources to help you prepare for the exam.

Which certification are you planning on earning this exam cycle?

CDT

CCS

CCPR

I'm not pursuing certification this time.

WHAT FIRES NEXT — ONE RULE PER ANSWER

Every answer tags the contact and sends the email for that credential — not a generic blast.

Then ask what's actually getting in the way.

Hi there,
I noticed you're not yet registered for a CSI certification exam this cycle.
I'm checking in to let you know I'm here to help if you have any questions!

Is there anything keeping you from taking an exam this cycle?

Nope. I still want to register!

- 30% - Time/ Still Studying/ Not Ready
- 26% - Something Else
- 12% - Nope. I still want to register!

WHAT YOU DO WITH EACH ANSWER

"I still want to register"	Send the link. They were just waiting.
"Time / still studying"	Prep resources and a check-in, not a deadline.
"Cost"	A payment plan, or a template to ask an employer.
"Something else"	A text box — they tell you in their own words.

SENT TO EVERYONE NOT YET REGISTERED

You can't remove an obstacle you never asked about.

IN PRACTICE — ARN

A certification journey built around the member, not the deadline.

THE CHALLENGE

Certification-focused members got the same generic onboarding as everyone else — and only heard from ARN at deadlines.

THE APPROACH

Ask why they joined, funnel the certification-driven into a CRRN nurture track, and keep them engaged with a five-week quiz — a conversation the whole way, not a countdown.

It's so nice to meet you, there!

I'm Grace Campbell, President of the ARN Board of Directors, here to welcome you as a new member. I'm so excited to have you as part of our rehab nursing community.

I'd like to learn more about your needs as a member. This will help us better curate your membership experience.

What are you hoping to get out of your ARN membership?

I want to earn my certification

I'm here to earn continuing education credits

I want to be part of the rehab nursing community

I can't wait to attend an event

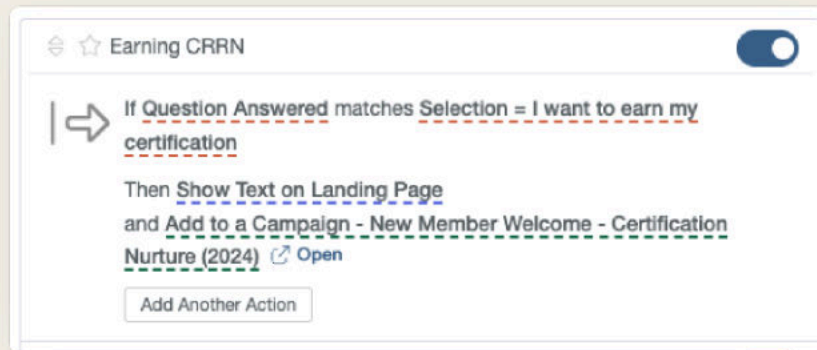

Something else

THE WELCOME QUESTION EVERY NEW MEMBER GETS

The answer doesn't sit in a report — it starts a journey.

WHAT NEW MEMBERS SAID

WHAT IT PUTS THEM INTO

Anchored by a five-question weekly quiz — guidance, resources, and reminders the whole way, not a countdown.

Offer something that actually helps, and almost everyone says yes.

Hi there,

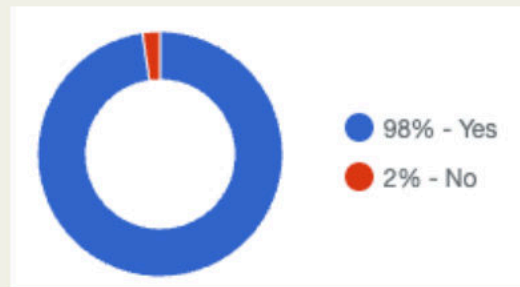

In order to help you prep for your CRRN® exam, we'd like to invite you to sign up for our weekly email series where we prompt you with a practice question to test your knowledge. The questions cover several the domains and the email series will last 5 weeks.

Would you like to receive 5 weekly CRRN® practice exam questions?

Yes No

THE INVITATION

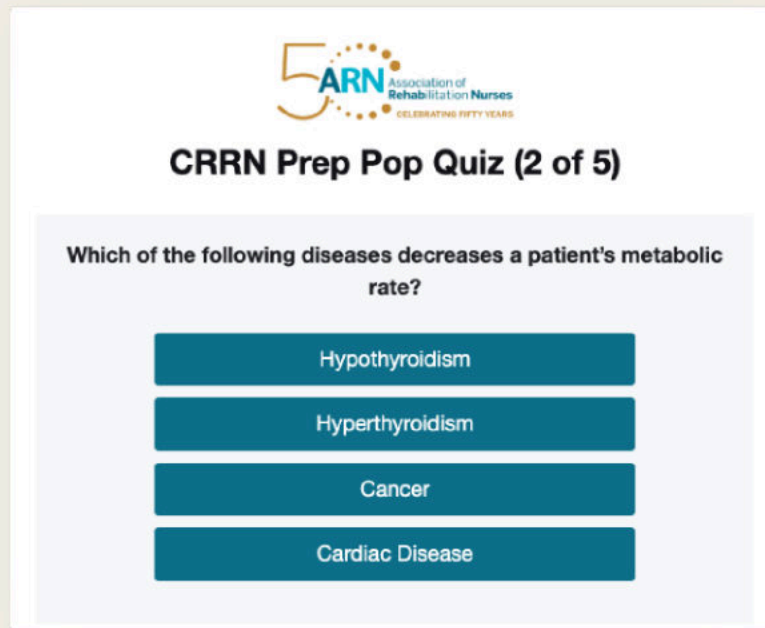

98%

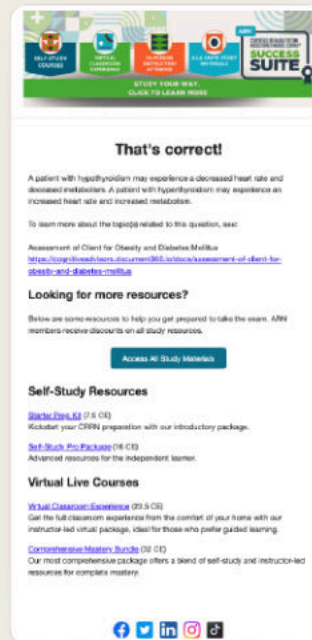

SAID YES

Members aren't tired of hearing from you. They're tired of only hearing from you when you need something.

One tap turns into teaching, resources, and a next step.

THE WEEKLY QUESTION

WHAT THEY GET BACK, INSTANTLY

Ten seconds of effort, and they walk away having learned something — every week until exam day.

IN PRACTICE — THE METRICS THAT MATTER

72%

engagement rate on the weekly quiz

1,300+

quiz sign-ups

~3,500 responses over five weeks.

32%

increase in certification applications

Alongside their broader digital push.

Certified isn't the finish line. Recertification is the renewal.

Check in on CE, flag renewal windows early, and ask if they need help — long before the deadline. That's how you earn the renewal before renewal season starts.

"How's your CE tracking this year?"

"Your recert window opens in 60 days."

"Anything you need help with?"

Renewed — months before renewal season

Remember the team? Here it is, across the journey.

Three things to do this week

Add one question to your candidate emails

"How's your prep going? Need help?"

Reach recertifying members early

Not at the deadline.

Ask lapsed or interested members what's in the way

And do something with the answer.

Earn the renewal before renewal season ever starts.

When you're in the conversation the whole way — interested, pursuing, certified, recertifying — renewal isn't a decision. It's a formality.
